

FITZ BROTHERS present “LIGHT LIFE LOVE” – a timeless album for music lovers

Ten songs about love, interpersonal relationships, and the light in life – that's the best way to describe the debut album by Austrian brothers Felix and Florian Sebastian Fitz. The two draw on a wealth of musical influences, breaking down the boundaries between pop, indie, and soundtrack.

From acoustic guitar to synths to orchestral elements, everything is there, with each individual instrument serving a specific function to create an atmosphere that allows the listener to let go, dive deep, and experience themselves. Emotionally, it's an up-and-down ride, with a great deal of sensitivity and artistic skill, always honest, always without reservation.

Particularly noteworthy is the radio single “Call Me A Liar,” a powerful anthem about conflict, anger, and accusations, but one that nevertheless attempts to be conciliatory and save what is in danger of falling apart.

LIGHT LIFE LOVE will be released on September 26, 2025, on all major streaming platforms, as well as on vinyl and CD. A milestone for the FITZ BROTHERS, who show themselves in all their different shades and colors.

Those who don't want to wait until the official release date will have the unique opportunity to experience LIGHT LIFE LOVE live for the first time on September 25, 2025, at Club Lucia, Vienna.
