Between retro soul, modern rock, and introspective pop, RUHMER finds a sound that feels familiar yet constantly surprises—somewhere between the living room and outer space, between Beck-like irony, British attitude, and the pathos of Paolo Nutini.

With his music, he gained international attention and found an audience on renowned radio stations such as FM4, Radio Superfly, Radio 88.6, DLF Kultur, SRF Virus, Radio Eins Berlin, egoFM, RaSa, and KanalK.

With at times over 17,000 monthly Spotify listeners, playlist features in Fresh Finds GSA, Indie Brandneu, and Alternative Austria, as well as nearly 60 live performances, RUHMER has proven his growing reach.
